FIFTY UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ARE GUESTS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Myrtle Clar Presents Resolutions to Governor Tomorrow

GLEE CLUB ENTERTAIN

Mamie Miller Woods is Honored by Request for Speech

Fifty students of the University of Kentucky were guests of the General Assembly and the Governor of Kentucky Thursday afternoon Feb. 16th. The delegation was made up of representatives of the various organizations of the campus.

The party left the University at 10:30 a. m. and arrived at the Capitol about 12 a. m. The students were taken to lunch by various members of the House and Senate, and again assembled in the state room of the Capitol where they were formally received by the Governor.

Myrtle Clar presented the resolutions passed by the Student body on the evening of Feb. 9th. After hearing the "Alibi" offered by the Governor for the report of the Budget Commission, the party proceeded to the floor of the House. In the meantime the quartet from the Glee Club, consisting of Neal Sullivan, J. F. Dahlinger, Earl Baughman, and S. D. Fendley had sung before the Senate and the same set of resolutions were presented to the President Pro-tem of the senate by Frances Marsh. When the party had assembled in the House Representative Harry Miller was called to the Chair and the house was given over to the University students. The quartette gave three songs to an audience that showed its appreciation by a strong demand for a fourth encore. W. H. Peal the first of the speakers contrasted Kentucky with other states in higher education, and in the name of the University students asked the Legislature to grant an appropriation large enough to place Kentucky on an equality with other states. J. W. Chenshaw, President of the Men's Student Council, presented the resolutions to the House. Margaret Smith spoke on behalf of the Kentucky girls who were barred from a college education because of lack of dormitories and class room facilities. The ovation given Miss Smith showed that she had struck a responsive cord.

Raymond T. Johnson the orator of the Senior Class spoke on "A Greater University." Going straight to the point he told the legislators that it lay in their hands to make the University what it should be, or to allow it to fall behind the institutions of other states. Mr. H. J. Beam ended the program by a recital of the work done for the ex-service men, and the facilities needed for the continuance of that work.

One striking occurrence of the visit was the compliment paid to Mamie Miller Woods. At her own request she had been omitted from the list of speakers, but the legislators who had seen her as Cinderella Tuesday evening called her to the visitor's chairs. At the end of the program our own Emery Frazier was recognized, and after a wonderful speech, presented Miss Woods with a dozen roses with the compliments of the House.

The members of the party were: Chaparones, Miss Jewell, Miss Logan, Prof. Hamilton and Prof. Jones. Students, Myrtle Clar, Mary Peterson.

Amanda Forkner Writes for Lexington Herald

As a result of the request of the Lexington Herald for a review, in advance, of the party given by the students of the University of Kentucky at the Lafayette Hotel on Valentine Evening, Amanda Forkner has greatly augmented her already widespread fame as a writer. Miss Forkner, a senior, majoring in journalism, was given, as an assignment, the duty of writing, beforehand, a review of the exercises and play given by the students of the University, as an entertainment for the State Legislators, who attended the banquet. Being thoroughly acquainted with the intended program, Miss Forkner wrote a splendid article which was published in the way of an extra, by the Herald, and distributed to those attending, just as the party broke up for the evening.

CLEMSON COULD NOT HANDLE OUR WILDCATS

Playing a Good Game But Carolinians are Unable to Break Up Passing

By J. A. ESTES

Back of the seriousness and earnestness generally connected with amateur athletics, there is always a little bit of yearning for the slapstick, ever waiting for an opportunity to crop out before an appreciative audience. Thus the slapstick proclivities of a championship basketball team furnished the main features of the University of Kentucky's 38 to 14 victory over the Clemson College quintet in the wildcat den last night.

The Blue and White squad of the University tortured the Clemsonites into submission in the first few minutes of play and at the end of the first half had the visitors on the rear seat of a 21 to 6 count. The freshmen team of the South Carolina school, although it showed flashes of individual brilliancy throughout the contest, was unable to break up the well developed passing game of the Wildcats, who once having attained a comfortable lead handled the sphere with a wisdom and nonchalance that would have exasperated a team of Jobs.

Wreckers Run to Form

Early in the second semester Coach George Buchheit responded to the insistent calls of the gallery for the "wrecking crew," and sent in an entire new lineup.

A summary of the shots taken by each team shows that the Kentucky varsity crew scored 13 field goals out of 62 tries at the basket, while the rear rank of the wildcats scored five field goals out of 33 chances, making a total of 18 goals out of 95 shots. Clemson got only 33 tries at the hoop and connected on four occasions. Clemson (14) (38) Kentucky Day (6)F..... (8) Hayden Schilleter (2) ...F..... (9) Kirg Colbert (4)C..... (8) Adkins BryanG..... Good, and Professor L. J. Horlacher.

CENTRE COLLEGE FIVE TO CLASH WITH THE WILDCATS FEB. 20

Last Game Wildcats will Play on Home Floor Monday Night

WILDCATS ART CONFID

Colonels Smarting from Defeat Will "Try Again"

Next Monday the Centre College Quintet will journey up to Lexington to clash with the Kentucky Wildcats for the second time season. The Colonels smarting under the 28 to 21 defeat suffered at the hands of the wearers of the Blue and White Saturday Feb. 4, will put up a keen struggle to even matters.

Since the last tilt with Centre the Wildcats have played with some of the strongest fives in the country. Defeating Washington and Lee team, while two of the defeats on the recent eastern trip were lost by only a small margin.

Since the return from the eastern trip the Wildcats have been practicing hard under the able direction of Coach Buchheit, the game with Clemson Thursday being the only one before the Centre game Monday evening.

An interesting fact about the teams who will play Kentucky is that Clemson which played here Thursday night will play Georgetown Friday and Centre Saturday.

A comparison of the score of the Clemson-Kentucky game with the scores of the two games above mentioned together with the scores of the recent games between these teams and Kentucky should furnish some interesting dope on the Centre-Kentucky game to be played here Monday evening February 20. The old score of the Kentucky-Georgetown game was 27 to 17 in Kentucky's favor while the score of the Centre game was 28 to 21 in the Wildcats favor. John Head of Louisville will officiate in the Centre-Kentucky game.

The probable lineup is as follows:

The marriage of Sue Boardman, a senior in the college of Arts and Sciences and Richard Hopkins, sophomore Pre-Medical student, both of Little Rock, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. A. W. Fortune, in Elsmers Park.

The bride was attractively dressed in a blue travelling suit and henna hat, and wore a corsage of violets and valley lilies. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta fraternity and very popular among University social circles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boardman, of Little Rock.

Attendants at the ceremony were: Roxanne Trimble, Dorothy Blatz, Newton Molloy and Raymond Kirk.

Richard Hopkins is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and was prominent in various campus activities. He and Mrs. Hopkins have been lifelong friends and sweethearts.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip in the South. On their return they will make their home at his farm near Paris.

"Sissy" Peterson Choice for Major Sponsor

Mary Peterson, Cynthiana, sophomore in the College of Agriculture has been elected to the honorary rank of Major Sponsor by the University Cadets at an election held this week. She was formally Sponsor of C Company with the rank of Captain.

"Sissy" as she is better known on the campus is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity, Sister Su-Ky circle and Agriculture Society. She takes an active part in every affair of the University and is of high standing in her class work.

The office of Major Sponsor was formally held by Elizabeth Kimbrough, but on account of her being a senior she was not eligible for re-election. This office is to be held by Miss Peterson until mid-semester of next year.

Wildcats Played Brilliant Game. Atkins and Lavin Put Out of Game

Washington, Feb. 11—The University of Kentucky was defeated at basket ball here tonight by Georgetown's undefeated quintet 28 to 23. It was the ninth straight victory for the Washingtonians. The contest was one of the fastest and most brilliant ever played here, not a moment being dull.

With only five minutes to play in the first half, Kentucky led by 20 to 19, but could not maintain the margin. Shortly after the beginning of the second half, the two teams were tied at nineteen and they played for exactly nine minutes without either quintet scoring.

Georgetown got its margin by a brilliant spurt near the close of the contest after two of the best Kentucky men Lavin and Atkins, had been put out on personal fouls.

LEGISLATURE GUESTS OF UNIVERSITY AND BOARD OF COMMERCE FEB. 14

Students Enthusiastically Stage Performances Showing Needs of University

LAWMAKERS PLEASED

Valentine Banquet and Student Program given At Lafayette Hotel

Virtually the entire body of Legislators was the guest of the Lexington Board of Commerce at a Valentine banquet given at the Lafayette Hotel, February 14, at 6:30 o'clock. The University of Kentucky collaborated with the Board of Commerce in offering a unique and entertaining program to the guests. This was a remarkable evening for the University in creating a spirit of close acquaintanceship and friendliness between the two bodies.

The interesting program opened with an effective address by Dr. J. O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University, in which he made a strong plea for a free state, free institutions and a free spirit of inquiry.

Then the curtains of the miniature stage erected in one end of the banquet hall were drawn and out popped quaint marionette figures in an allegorical drama written by Madison Cawein, student in the University. The figures were constructed and operated by Thomas Young, a mechanical student. The dialogue was admirably suited to the topic of the moment and they made an instantaneous hit.

After a musical selection by the Glee Club, an interlude entitled "The Growth of the University of Kentucky" was enacted by Roscoe Kash, John Burke and Albert Hukle. The first scene of this tragedy consisted of the appearance of Roscoe Kash in a neatly fitting ordinary suit of clothes representing the University at a time when her appropriation was adequate and her student body not too large to over tax its equipment.

The second scene indicated that the dangerous process of growth had set in and this was represented by John Burke, a larger man than Kash, but wearing a suit of the same size. The last scene gave the Legislators an ocular demonstration that the state's principal institution had long since outgrown its equipment when Albert Hukle, who stands six feet three inches, stepped out with the same size suit of clothes. So much of "Red" protruded from all points that the analogy was quite apparent and he was received with screams of laughter.

The premier skit of the evening was the production of the allegorical playlet, "A Kentucky Cinderella", written by Professor Grant C. Knight in collaboration with other members of the faculty. The parts were played by University Students and the costumes and scenery were made under the direction of the Art Department. Miss Mamie Miller Woods represented Miss University of Kentucky. Dame Gossip was enacted by Miss Sue Chenault and Eddyville, Frankfort and Phoebe, representing the penitentiaries and feeble minded institutes, were enacted by S. C. Hart, George Rouse, and Miss Louise Covington. In the penitentiary garb and another fitting costume these characters appeared on the scene as serious competitors in state appropriations for the favor of their paternal ancestor, the General Assembly, which was their audience. VISITORS at the Chicago World's Fair, in 1893, saw the first extensive use of alternating current ever undertaken, when Westinghouse lighted the entire grounds with this type of current. This achievement marked the beginning of the commercial development of alternating current for power purposes, and brought the induction motor into a prominence which it has never since relinquished. Great and rapid have been the developments since that day, but the most impressive aspect of this progress is not to be found in the spectacular evidences that are visible to everyone, but rather, in the vision and fundamental soundness and determination that have been quietly at work blazing and clearing the trails which the electrical art has followed.

There is, for instance, the synchronous converter. This machine is the most efficient and economical means for changing alternating to direct current, which the operation of most street railway systems and many other processes require. Without it, the development of alternating current to its present universal usefulness would have been tremendously retarded.

The synchronous converter, in its present perfection, is but one of the great contributions to electrical progress that have been made by Benjamin G. Lamme, Chief Engineer of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company. Mr. Lamme, in 1891 when he was Chief Designer, conceived and developed the converter, which, first used commercially in connection with the great Niagara power plan, has since come to be indispensable to large producers of power.

When a man has played so vital a part in electrical progress that his knowledge and vision have contributed to practically every forward engineering step, it is perhaps misleading to attempt to identify him particularly with any one development. His work on the induction motor, the turbo generator, the single-phase railway motor, and the synchronous converter is but typical of the constructive ability which Mr. Lamme has brought to bear on practically every phase of electrical development.

A man of foresight, visioning the alternatives in a problem as well as its hoped-for results. A man whose mind combines great power of analysis with the gift of imagination. A prolific technical writer, whose style is unequalled in clearness and simplicity of expression. Few engineers so thoroughly predetermine the results they actually achieve. Few men capitalize their experiences so completely. And few indeed have at once his thorough technical equipment, his commercial understanding, and his broad human interests.

An institution which has builded its success largely on engineering achievement pays Benjamin G. Lamme affectionate loyalty and respect. The young engineer on his first job, as well as the most seasoned co-worker, finds in him understanding, sympathy, wise counsel, and a conscience; to all of which his associates, in preparing this article, are proud to bear witness.

Ryan Ringo, one of the most prominent students of the University, left school this week to look into a promising business proposition. Ringo was a junior in the College of Engineering, and expects to return to the University next semester to continue his studies.

Ryan was popular at the University in all phases of University life. Especially was he interested in athletics and in fostering and maintaining school spirit on the athletic field. Since he entered the University as a freshman and became Freshman Cheer Leader he has been noted for his "Pep". Ryan is now a member of the Su-Ky Circle, whose purpose is to put school spirit behind athletics.

Ringo has also been prominent in the social life of the University. He is a member of Delta Chi fraternity, Keys, Thirteen and was president of Sophomore Class.

The Military Ball, one of the biggest social affairs of the University year, will be given at the Armory next Tuesday evening. It has been the custom for several years to have this dance the night before Washington's Birthday so as to give it the true patriotic and military spirit.

EASTERN COLLEGES CRITICISE KENTUCKY

Exchanges for Eastern and other institutions that come each week to the Kernel's exchange desk carry in many instances caustic and even unkind criticism upon the state of Kentucky on account of efforts in Kentucky legislature to enact a law that will peralize henceforth the teaching of Evolution in the State's chief institution of learning and other similar places of education. Where these comments are irritating we prefer at this time not to comment on either the justice or injustice of the various attitudes contained in them; we prefer rather to assume the attitude of a mere onlooker in Venice without either suggestion or criticism. The Kernel has an abiding faith that common sense and good judgment will in the end devise a solution of a problem which the University did not propound and which will call for judgment more mature than we frankly believe we can at this time bring to bear upon at least a dangerous subject.

ENTERTAINMENT OF ASSEMBLY A SUCCESS

The recent visit of the State legislators in Lexington on which occasion they were guests of the Board of Commerce supplied an opportunity for the students and legislators to establish personal equations and relationships that the Kernel is vain enough to believe resulted in the increasing popularity of the student folk with the law makers of the State by giving the Legislators opportunity to come into personal contact with the object of the chief concern of the University which is the student body. The net result was that both now enjoy broader understanding of each others' problems and limitations.

The Kernel indulges the hope that this meeting under happy circumstances under which it took place will be followed by more such and that through such gatherings may be established a firm point of contact between the University and the people whom the legislators represent.

The occasion was one full of happy incidents, agreeable surprises and cordial fellowship for that those participating in it. The Kernel takes the liberty to congratulate the students who participated in the entertainment and the faculty folk between whom the students on this occasion. There was so many manifested a spirit of genuine cooperation on the results of their night's work. Coming as it did at the beginning of the new semester many were compelled to make sacrifices in order to promote the legislative problem, but the fact that they did this with so hearty good will and so fine loyalty gives rise to the hope that we have at last established on the campus a real forward moving University spirit.

Few times in the history of the University has so notable a program been given or have students shown so marked ability as entertainers.

Other columns in the Kernel will tell more fully than we can here details of the evening, but we could not refrain from expressing our feeling of gratification over the happy outcome of an incident that cannot fail to bring good results. The Kernel has been asked to express through this column the appreciation of the faculty committee which engineered the program for the cordial response of the students and their cooperation on this occasion.

tucky stood out against them for the affection of her venerable daddy, General Assembly. Mr. Oil Inspector, Mr. Bond Issue, Mr. Gasoline Tax, each bidding for the favor of Miss University of Kentucky made futile efforts to win her. These parts were played respectively by Dan Morse, John Whitaker, and A. K. Owley. A parade of other state Universities was represented by girls clad in pretty costumes, each proud of her superiority and poking fun at little Kentucky in her tattered garb.

These characters were:
Missouri—Ruth Morse.
Wisconsin—Myrtle Ciare.
Tennessee—Elizabeth Hopkins
California—Evelyn Kelly.
Ohio State—Jeannette Lampert
Michigan—Margaret Harbison
Virginia—Ida Kenny Risque.
Minnesota—Katherine Dunn.
Indiana—Nell Hank.

Illinois—Ann Whitney Smith
North Carolina—Addlaide Longest.

This skit was followed by Chorus of University girls led by Miss Kentucky clad meagerly as became Kentucky's educational appropriation. They dashed off the stage singing and pinning dainty Valentines upon the coats of Legislators. About fifty co-eds appeared in the chorus and seemed to be quite successful in making friends with the guests.

The program closed with a tableau entitled "The Spirit of the Seal of the State of Kentucky," presented by Edward Gregg and Miss Eleanor Morse. Mr. Gregg represented the spirit of legislation and Miss Morse that of the spirit of education.

During the banquet the University orchestra furnished delightful music and between each number on the program the Glee Club sang many enjoyable selections.

One of the features of the evening was the circulation of an extra edition of the Herald containing a complete account of the evening program. The story was written by Miss Amanda Faulkner.

Tim (ditto): Dunno. What part of hell do you come from?

Reform School Girls Valentine Party Given

A Valentine party was given by some of the University girls for the girls at the Reform School last Tuesday afternoon. Several games and contests were played and valentines and candy were distributed to the girls.

After the University girls part was finished the Reform School girls entertained them in their turn. A clever play was presented by ten girls in costume. Singing, dancing and recitations in dialogue formed the features of their very interesting program.

COACH JAMES PARKS' DIAMOND STARS HAVE COMMENCED ACTIVITIES

A Large Number of Twirlers And Infielders Signed Up Monday

EXPECT STRONG NINE

Slomer and Gregg to Take Charge of Squad Until Parks Arrives.

When Coach James Parks takes up his duties as baseball coach next month he will find that the followers of the diamond have not allowed the grass to grow under their feet.

Following the announcement by Captain "Bud" Slomer that all pitchers and catchers report to Athletic Director S. A. Boles' office at the fifth hour Monday, fifteen pitchers and four catchers have indicated their intention to try out for the team and men were still registering when this report went to press. The men who have signed up will practice in the gymnasium under the direction of "Bud" Slomer and Ed Gregg until the arrival of Coach Parks about the middle of March.

With all this material Coach Parks, who is former years was one of the best twirlers who ever wore the Blue and White, should be able to develop several good pitchers and catchers. It the pitching staff of the Wildcats can be bolstered up with this material and with King, Burnham, Gregg and Brown trying out for positions on the team Coach Parks has the material for one of the best infielders that has trod the diamond on Stroll Field in many seasons. While in Sauer, Jones and Beam veterans of the garden plot, he has players who should form an outfield of high calibre. Besides the men who, have signed up for the mound position and for the position behind the plate, there are other aspirants for the team in addition to those enumerated above. With all this material Coach Parks should be able to turn out a championship team.

The schedule for the 1922 season is as follows:

April 1	Georgetown at Lexington.
April 8	Michigan at Lexington.
April 15	Ohio State at Lexington.
April 20	Notre Dame at Lexington.
April 22	Centre College at Danville.
April 29	Cincinnati at Lexington.
May 5	Vanderbilt at Nashville.
May 6	Vanderbilt at Nashville.
May 8	Georgia at Athens.
May 9	Georgia at Athens.
May 10	Mercer at Macon.
May 11	Mercer at Macon.
May 13	Centre at Lexington.
May 16	Georgetown at Georgetown.

May 19	Tennessee at Lexington.

Athletic Council And University Authorities Veto Cuban Trip

The high hopes that the University of Kentucky Basketball Team would play a series of games in Havana so long entertained by University students in general and the players on the team in particular were laid to a quiet rest last Monday afternoon when Athletic Director S. A. Boles sent a cablegram to the Cuban Athletic Club expressing regret that the team would be unable to accept the offer.

The much discussed trip was refused, it was stated, because it would keep the players away from their studies longer than was deemed advisable. The recently completed Eastern trip and the trip to the Atlanta Tournament will keep the varsity players out of the classrooms for about two weeks and the council stated that it would not be advisable to add a third trip to the list.

FRESHMEN GIVE THE SOPHOMORES SUPPRISE

The Sophomores, leaders of the Class Basketball League, received a setback Saturday afternoon, in the form of a defeat at the hands of the Freshman quintet, although it took five minutes extra for the Green team to win. Both teams played a good brand of ball and gave their best.

The Freshmen jumped into the lead at the start of the game and the first half ended with them on the long end of a 6-9 score. Then the sophomores sprang to the front and were leading 15-13 a few minutes before the final whistle. A few seconds before the end, Jones, Freshman guard, threw a field goal almost from the middle of the floor tying the count, at fifteen all. In the extra period the Freshmen scored one field goal, meanwhile holding their opponents scoreless.

Builds New Stadium

In its successful campaign for a new stadium, the University of California put itself in the situation, not of asking for donations but of selling seats in the stadium for the next ten years. The unit of payment to the stadium fund was $100, each cash payment purchasing $100 in scrip, redeemable in stadium tickets at the rate of $10.00 for the next ten years.

WILDCAT WRESTLERS DEFEATED BY INDIANS

Wildcats Not Accustomed To Big Ten Conference Rulings,

The following is the write up of the Wildcat and University of Indiana wrestling match, which was held at the Bloomington Indiana the home of the University.

Haze Clark refereed the match and the following writeup was written by him, as he is the sporting editor of the Indiana Daily Times.

"Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 11.—Coach Jack Reynolds' Indiana University grapplers won the wrestling tournament here last night, defeating the University of Kentucky by the score of 28 to 12. There were seven matches between the Indiana and Kentucky athletes. Indiana mat men won three of these matches by falls, and obtained a decision in two of the bouts. Kentucky secured a decision in two matches, winning the 125 pound and 135-pound class.

The men from Kentucky were unaccustomed to the Big Ten Conference rules, having always worked under the Southern Conference rules, which divides the wrestling time in three five-minute periods. The Conference rules provide for a twelve-minute wrestling period, and if necessary to decide the bout, the contestants wrestle two overtime periods of three minutes each.

The matches last night brought out some spirited contests and clever work by the mat men of both universities. In the first bout the men weighed in at 115 pounds. Parr of Indiana and Waits of Kentucky mixed it in fast style and both were in close places two or three times as they rolled about the mat. Then Parr got a half-Nelson and body lock on the Kentucky athlete and pinned Waits shoulders to the mat in 9 minutes and 22 seconds.

In the next two matches Kentucky wrestlers appeared strong. Cunningham of Indiana met Maddox of Kentucky and they weighed 125 pounds. It required two over-time periods for Maddox to win a decision. The Kentucky athlete was behind Cunningham less than two minutes.

Stith of Kentucky proved to be an aggressive, fast mat man. The husky 130 pound wrestler kept Hoffman of Indiana busy and Stith won a decision. Sauer of Indiana made quick work of Winter of Kentucky in the 145 pound class. Cauer won a fall in five minutes and seventeen seconds. Sauer proved too fast and clever for his opponent.

One of the most interesting bouts of the night was the 158 pound class, which brought together Lucas of Indiana and Okin of Kentucky. Akin worked hard, but the powerful Lucas was clever and slipped behind the Kentucky mat man early in the match and remained there during most of the bout. Lucas won a decision.

The real feature of the wrestling contests was the work of Enlow of Kentucky, known as one of the best heavy weight wrestlers in the South and a man who gained much mat experience by wrestling while in the Army. Enlow is a powerful GALLEY TWELVE ... ly built athlete who knows how to wrestle, but he attempted what he could not do successfully and that was to throw both Held and Mumby of Indiana. In making the attempt he won the applause of the Indiana University wrestling fans.

W. Delbert Funkhouser, chairman of the faculty athletic committee, and well known to followers of athletics in Indiana when he played football and other athletic games at Wabash College twenty years ago, and later was in athletics at Cornell University, was in charge of the Kentucky team. With the score 22 to 12 in favor of Indiana, Funkhouser knew that it would be necessary for his team to win both the 175 pound match and the 185 weight match to win the wrestling tourney. Kentucky had two men for these events, but one was a new man just starting the wrestling game and the other man was Enlow, one of the best in all Southland. Funkhouser decided to let Enlow try to win both matches.

In the 175 pound class Enlow started to take it easy, believing himself to be a sure winner in that bout. Held of Indiana got behind his Kentucky rival and it was with great difficulty that Enlow got back on his feet after more than three minutes. Then Enlow threw Held, but both athletes were off the mat and the fall did not count and the men were brought back to the center of the mat, with Enlow on top. Held slipped from under his opponent and the mar got back on their feet and were in that position when time was called. Held of Indiana won the decision.

Mumby of Indiana, one of the best heavyweight wrestlers ever developed at that school, found the going rough with Enlow as an opponent. Eleven minutes passed and neither man had been off his feet. Then Mumby secured a body hold on the Kentucky heavyweight and forced him to the mat. A half-nelson turned him over and Mumby pinned Enlow in eleven minutes and seventeen seconds.

MILITARY NOTES

The competition in the R. O. T. C. Unit at the University has been much in evidence for the $180.00 silver cup which is to be offered by the fifth corps area for the best firing squad. Three stages have been completed and the fourth stage is now in progress. There are six stages to be fired. All large universities in this corps area are competing for this cup, including such universities as Ohio State University, University of Cincinnati, University of West Virginia, Depaw University, and several others.

The University has entered two teams, a first and a second team, with fifteen men in each team. The ten highest scores count each time. In the third stage which was fired last week, the ten highest scores are as follows:

BLUE AND WHITE TEAM IS DEFEATED BY THE VIRGINIAN QUINTET

The Most Thrilling Contest Ever Staged In Fayerwether Gym Says Fans

SCORE 28 TO 26

Hayden and Atkins Staring In Last of Eastern Series of Games

Charlottesville, Va., Feb. 13.—Dick Arrington, the University of Virginia's little forward, tossed a spectacular field goal here tonight that gave his quintet a 32 to 30 victory over the University of Kentucky. The shot came just as the crack of the timer's pistol announced the end of a five minute overtime period that had to be played to decide the contest which ended 28 to 28.

The game was a thriller from start to finish and the Wildcats proved to be the toughest opponents that have faced the Orange and Blue on the home floor this season. The half ended with the home lads on the long end of a 17 to 12 count. The Virginia quintet was decidedly crippled in the second half through the loss of Oppleman, who was ejected with four personal fouls against him.

In this period the Kentuckians found the basket and through some deftly tossed throws by Adkins, assumed a two point lead.

With the score standing 28 to 28 at the beginning of the extra period, King saak a field goal for the Wildcats and Mahood tied thecount a minute later. This score held until Carrington scored the winning goal.

The contest was the most thrilling ever staged in Fayerwether gymnasium. Four times the score was tied in last ten minutes of play. Virginia apparently had the game won near the close of the second period, but a spectacular goal by Hayden just as the whistle sounded knotted the count for the southern intercollegiate champions.

The Kentuckians have fared dably in Old Dominion territory, having lost to V. M. I. by 37 to 32. They took Washington and Lee into camp, however 21 to 20.

Lineup:
Virginia (32) (30) Kentucky
Oppleman (2) ... F..... (4) Hayden
Carrington (16) ... F..... (14) King

SOW GLANDS FOR COWS

Aged Bovines Become Frisky as Serum Is Used

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 15—The principle employed in monkey glands for rejuvenating has been used with success in experimenting on cows, it was announced today by officials of the state bureau of animal industry. Eleven dairy cows which had become grandmothers many times, were made young and frisky by a serum extracted from glands of sows, the statement said. The old cows were given the serum in capsules, and not only did they fail to develop any traits of pigs, but were reported by observers to have become useful again.

Complete reports on the experiments have been sent to Secretary of Agriculture Ramussen from the department's laboratory at Philadelphia.

Were You Born In This Month? If So, Why Not?

Recently I had a talk with a well known astrologer, what-ever-you-want-to-call-her and following is the gist of her nonsensical mystics put in plain English.

Venus has pulled away from Jupiter who has begun to cast longing eyes at Minerva, clothed a la dance hall, and is inclining toward Saturn who has taken on a gilded front and an air of much moneys. Venus has affected a peculiar twist which will have much to do with the actions of both Jupiter and Saturn, who seem to have that old attitude of doubt or straddling the fence.

Looking into the lives of those born in this month, both men and women we can see much through the planets. First less take women.

Women born in February will cry quite a lot when babies, if hungry. They are very susceptible to disease if it is prevalent while they are growing up and they come in contact with those affected by it. They will pass through two stages. Girlhood, which will last until someone suggests marriage and Old Maidhood, which endures forever. Now it is probable that a few will marry, if they are pretty, attractive and aren't so particular whom he is. However, the road will not be so smooth for constant nagging by those born in this month, will lead to Judge Riley.

Furthermore women should beware of boiling water and carbolic acid, either spilled on the thigh or calf of the leg will be painful and mayhap disfiguring. They should avoid getting in the way of fists, bullets or passing football players, any of these will lead to heart trouble, ever late in life.

They, the lucky born in this month, will be fond of money, fine clothes and the absence of work and when they reach theripe age of ninety-seven will have wrinkles all over, if they fail to use a well known patent medicine. Old age, for them, will come late in life often followed by death or some other well known demise. Few will crave careers as pugilists but many will seek fame early in life through the movies and marriage to titles. There will be a peculiar trait attributable to those born in this month and that is they will be taught to marry for love, all through their childhood, and then some bird with a past and a pocket full of coin will take them off and fool them into thinking they are happily married. Hair and indigestion will both come to those born in this second twelfth of the year.

A Pressing Question.

Have you ever danced with that little girl,

The one so dainty and sweet
And by some chance or misfortune
You walked all over her feet?
Then smilingly she looked at you,
Without a moments halt,
And says so sweet and soothingly,
Why dear its all my fault!
But do you think she means it
Even tho she says it was?
Now do you really think so?

THE DUCE SHE DOES!
Have you ever taken that girl to lunch
When three bucks was all your dough,
And told her not to order much
Because youd be late for the show?
Then watched her big eyes smile at you
As she whispered soft and sweet
When she had finished eating nothing
Tho her words don't sound so bad,
Now, do you really think so

THE DUCE SHE HAD!
Have you ever sat with that little girl
In the light of the silvery moon
With her fluffy head upon your chest
While with her you madly spoon?
Then as you pressed your lips to her
Felt a flutter in your breast
As she told you that of all the boys
In the world she loved you best?
But while into your eager ear,
She murmured Your'e some kid!!
Did you think she really meant it
THE DUCE SHE DID?

It took YEARS and YEARS to develop CAMEL QUALITY

We worked on Camels for years before we put them on the market. Years of testing—blending—experimenting with the world's choicest tobaccos.

And now, EVERY DAY, all our skill, manufacturing experience and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos are concentrated on making Camel the best cigarette that can be produced.

There's nothing else like Camel QUALITY. And there's nothing else like Camels wonderful smoothness, fine tobacco flavor and freedom from cigaretty aftertaste.

That's why Camel popularity is growing faster than ever.

A better cigarette cannot be made.

We put the UTMOST QUALITY into THIS ONE BRAND.

Legislators Cheer Play

Tuesday was University Night with a vengeance at the Lexington Board of Commerce Valentine party in the ballroom of the Lafayette hotel. The students presented dramatically the need of the University for a larger appropriation; Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of Ohio State University told of the great past and the prospects for the future of the "land grant College; and State Senator J. Will Stoll '82, of Lexington, the master of ceremonies, clinched the argument with a plea at the conclusion, if it already hadn't been clinched by the arrival of a score of pretty University girls who pinned flowers on the lapels of the lawmakers. That the party was literally a "howling success" was proven at the climax when Miss Mamie Miller Woods, as the University in the role of Cinderella among her well dressed sister state universities, made everybody in the ballroom rise to his feet, cheering. A feature of the occasion was the distribution of a special extra by the Lexington Herald, much of the credit for which is due Tom Underwood, ex-'19, the managing editor.

The following telegram was received to be read at the banquet:

Philadelphia, Penna.
February 14, 1922.

"Herbert Graham
"University of Kentucky
"Lexington.

"We understand Lexington is being honored today by a visit from the Kentucky Legislature. Please present to the members our greetings with the hope they will have the opportunity of visiting the University and seeing for themselves the urgent need at this time of increase facilities to keep abreast of the state educational needs. Surely Kentucky cannot afford to interrupt the development of its University's facilities which are now inadequate to meet the state's demands.

On the program for the brief business session is to be the announcement of committees by the new president, W. C. Wilson, of which the officers are chairman, as follows:

Miss Pearl Bastin, vice president, membership; Marie Barkley, secretary, club activities; Headley Shouse, treasurer, finances; and Professor W. E. Freeman, to revise the constitution and by-laws.

"Pep" Features Meeting

Mrs. Clara Mattie Studer, '13, was elected president of the Cincinnati Alumni Club at the February meeting, a dinner-dance held February 7 at the Claremont Gardens, at Newport, Ky. Other new officers are Ed Hundley, '14, vice-president; Adele Slade, '21, secretary; and H. W. Greife, treasurer.

About fifty were present. A short business meeting was held in the interim between the dinner and dance. Warner P. Sayers, the retiring president, made a report on activities at the University; and reports were made by the retiring secretary and the treasurer, Mrs. Studer and Mr. Greife.

It was an enthusiastic meeting in every sense of the adjective, according to the report from the secretary.

"Enthusiasm, pep, and real Wildcat spirit marked the meeting," she said. "The Claremont rang with 'All Hail Kentucky' and 'fifteen rags, Kentucky.' All the U. K. songs were sung (Miss Ada Hardesty, pianist) and all the yells were yelled. Those who didn't know them or had forgotten them were not long in learning them again."

Lovett a Campaigner

Joe T. Lovett, '22, is launching a campaign in his new paper, the Tribune-Democrat, at Benton, county seat of Marshall, in Western Kentucky, and if they all come through Joe may claim credit for a number of achievements.

"Purebreds, education, a co-operative tobacco marketing association—for which a movement of that kind in the 'Black Patch' has already been instituted by Judge Bingham, of Louisville, and others are on our editorial calendar," he says in a letter. And in addition Joe and his partner and his paper are making a fight for the location at Benton of one of the proposed new state normal schools, and plans also are being made to have a county agent installed.

Lovett was graduated from the College of Arts and Sciences at midyear, and for several months before he left was sporting editor of the Lexington Herald.

Weaver, '95, Makes Plea

Kentucky has wonderful natural resources and its own boys and girls should learn the processes by which its mineral wealth can be developed and turned into money and the money turned into their own pockets instead of some speculator from this city, Rufus L. Weaver, '95 180 Broadway, New York City, wrote State Senator Frank M. White and Representative E. B. Cross, in a letter on the legislative situation. "Kentuckians should develop and market the resources of Kentucky. They can do that if they are given knowledge of sciences and apply that knowledge to the hills, mountains and valleys. A few of them, like some of us have, may make the mistake of leaving the state, but the great majority are there and they always will stay at home." Mr. Weaver, prominent attorney, made an urgent plea for support by the legislature of the University's expansion program.

Basketeers are Cheered

Members of the University basketball team were cheered on their Eastern invasion by a large box of candy presented by the Hon. J. W. McChesney. He also had notified his sister, Mrs. Turner, to meet the boys at Staunton Va., where they had an hour between trains on their way to Richmond, and this time was made notable with a luncheon of fine Virginia apples and other good things to eat. Mr. McChesney met the boys on their return at Winchester with another treat of fruit and candy. Certainly this Virginian has proven himself a real friend of the University of Kentucky and the boys were loud in their praises of him and his sister. Alumni and friends of the University certainly appreciate the good offices of the McChesneys.

The Masonic fraternity has changed its name and reorganized as the Tau Delta Alpha fraternity of the University of Kentucky. The change was made because of the inability to expand as desired.

Although this is the second year that the fraternity is to maintain a house, it has never made an attempt to become national. It is probable, however, under the new name, that application will be made for membership in one of the larger fraternities that is not represented at the University at present.

The charter members of the organization are: W. W. Kirtley, E. M. Johnson, W. N. Schwab, C. M. C. Porter, Harry Waller, R. C. Miller, W. H. Peel, H. J. Beam, C. V. Snapp, Guy Ledwidge, B. M. At a call meeting of the members of the Philosophian Literary Society Wednesday evening in the recreation hall at Patterson Hall, the president, Pansy Meyers outlined the work for the present semester and gave an unusually interesting talk on the traditions of the society. The annual Philosophian play will be the chief work of the Society this semester.

Dean Boyd will be the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Lexington Alumni Club at the Phoenix, Saturday noon. His subject will be: "How the local alumni may aid the University."

The Junior engineers will go on their annual inspection trip to Cincinnati, Hamilton, Dayton and other places April 4 and return April 8. The whole class, which includes sixty men, will go and will be accompanied by Professors Hopkins, Bureau and Newman.

The Senior engineers (fifty men) will visit Chicago and its vicinity during the week of April 10-15. Dean Freeman, Professor Terrell, Mr. Dicker and Mr. O'Bannon will accompany them.

Major F. J. Ostermann from the Headquarters Fifth Corps Area, Fort Benjamin Harrison, was here Monday making inspection of the R. O. T. C. Unit. These inspections are periodical, twice during each year. Major Ostermann evidently found everything alright here as he had no criticisms to make.

Eddy Student Speaker Will Give Lectures

FIFTY STUDENTS VISIT ASSEMBLY LEGISLATURE GUESTS OF U. OF K. FEBRUARY 14

Sherwood Eddy, who is coming to the University March 3, 4, and 5 to give a series of Evangelistic lectures, has just returned from a campaign among the students of Europe and the Near East. He made a special study of the social and industrial problems in Europe during the present unrest. He has held conferences with students of the University of Berlin, and studied present conditions in Germany and Austria. He was with the Poles in their last stand before Warsaw, flew with their flying squadron, and studied conditions among the Bolshevik prisoners.

He conducted the first student conference ever held in Czechoslovakia, and made two journeys through Turkey in the midst of the present strife between Nationalists, Armenians, and Greeks. In Egypt the attendance at his meetings rose from twenty-five hundred a night in Cairo, where two theaters were filled every night to over six thousand a night in Assiut. After entering the industrial centers of the Balkans and Italy, and the devastated areas of France and Belgium, he made a special study of the labor problem in England during the coal strike, and attended the Trade Union Congress at Portsmouth, meeting the principal labor leaders, employers, and young intellectuals of England. He brings a message concerning the present industrial crisis in Europe, a possible solution for America's industrial problem, and the basis of a new social order. Few men of our time have had such an opportunity to study both the student situation and the industrial problem in Europe, Asia and America. Such a man will certainly have a great message for the students of the University of Kentucky.

Y. M. C. A.

Doctor Harry Best was the speaker at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. held last Sunday night in the Y room. His subject was "The Five Types of Men."

Doctor Best said: "Life is a golden gift. There are five types of men in life. The first is the man. Abraham Lincoln whose name grows greater every year is the finest incarnation of a man ever known. He is known to a large number which even includes the immigrants to the United States.

"The second type is the gentleman. This is a man who has a keen sense of honor, who thinks of others before himself and refuses to take advantage of a weaker man. Robert E. Lee is a type of a real gentleman."

"The third type is the scholar. A college man should be able to go forth and conquer. Doctor Arnold of Rugby is a true scholar. 'Watch ye, stand fast in the faith quit ye like men and be strong' is on his monument."

"The worker is the fourth type. You go through life as one who gets something from it or gives something to it. Doctor Granfell of Labrador who ministers to the fishermen goes into the cold as a worker. The test of a worker is not his words but his deeds."

"The last type is the Christian and this is the highest form of life. This is a man whose Magna Charta is the Bible. The world is entering into an increased appreciation of Jesus Christ. Think of the privilege you have of being under Christ. John Bunyan was a true Christian. His book is more widely known than any other book besides the Bible. We may put the Christian in all, through all, over all, and above all. This life alone has a price too great for a man to estimate."

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The first of the Sunday evening Y. W. C. A. meetings in charge of the sororities was held last Sunday at Patterson Hall. Alpha Gamma Delta was responsible for the program. The speaker was the Reverend B. C. Horton of the Methodist Church. His subject was "Thinking and Doing," or "The Relation of Thought to Action."

In part the Reverend Horton said, "We have the privilege of thinking, investigating and exploring the realms of thought. In learning how to think we life in its marvelous possibilities. Thinking is not easy work, we must put the grasp the great truths of life and see whole of life into it. A great thought preceded every great action. This is a wonderful power which belongs to us, so we should become able to think truly. Admiral Dewey, because he thought carefully put his thoughts into action and won the fight at Manila Bay. Lew Wallace wrote of an exact picture of Palestine even though he had never been there just because he first thought it out carefully."

"Learn to think and so elevate your vision of life. Think truly and deeply and get beneath the surface so you will get greater enjoyment out of life. Do more than surface thinking; get into the rich soil that has not been disturbed and gather the great fruits of great thought. A life that thinks truly and does well leaves an imperishable impress on the sands of time."

The Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. held an open meeting at Patterson Hall last Monday night. The semester reports were given by the Chairmen of the different Committees.

Mr. Ralph Owens gave a short talk on Sherwood Eddy and his work. Mr. Eddy who is one of the greatest student speakers of the world is coming to the University March 3, 4, and 5 to give a series of Evangelistic lectures.
